DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the auto- and cross correlation matrices, and the inverse of the input channel's power matrix as specified in claims 1 and 14, a first order recursive network as specified in claim 5 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 6, 8, 10, 13 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Zeidler et al (US 4,355,368).

Regarding claims 1, 8, 10, 13 and 14, Zeidler et al disclose an adaptive filter (22) comprising at least two inputs signals (12, 16), and an output for supplying an output signal (24), characterized in that the adaptive filter further comprises: means for determining coefficients updates in a transformed domain (Fig. 1 shows the signals are in frequency domain after 14 and 18); an update algorithm with transformed auto- and a cross correlation matrices (Fig. 5; col. 8, lines 9-18; col. 7, lines 25-68); and means for reducing the effect of correlation between the input signals on the coefficient updates, said reducing means multiplying the frequency domain input signals (the nominator in equation 2 is formed by the frequency domain input signals) with the inverse of the input channel's power matrix (the denominator  $S_x(\omega)$  in equation 2).

Regarding claim 6, the update algorithm is used to solve the coefficients  $w$  for the adaptive filters. The input channel power matrix is a part of the function of equation 2 that is used to solve the coefficients.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 9, 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Zeidler in view of Makino et al (US 6,246,760).

Regarding claims 9, 11 and 12, Zeidler fails to specify the nature of the input signals. Zeidler teaches a general adaptive filter for reducing the noise (any kind) on the input signals (any kind). One skilled in the art would have expected that Zeidler's adaptive filter could be used for reducing noise in any specific application, such as in echo cancellation, teleconferencing, voice inputs signals, without generating any unexpected result. Makino teaches an example of teleconferencing with multiple inputs (16s). The noise caused by echo is reduced using adaptive. Thus, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to utilize Zeidler's adaptive filter for canceling noise in a teleconferencing system.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 5 and 7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

9. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Ping Lee whose telephone number is 571-272-7522.
